

Recovery Community Organization Toolkit Resources

FEDERAL GOVERNMENT RESOURCES

Addiction Technology Transfer Centers

<http://www.nattc.org/>

Addiction Technology Transfer Centers (ATTC) promote educational and research exchange among various disciplines.

Grants.gov Contact Center

www.grants.gov

The United States Department of Health & Human Services Grants.gov website is a one-stop resource for federal grants administered by the agency. Sign up for its free quarterly Succeed Newsletter to receive information.

Partners for Recovery

<http://www.pfr.samhsa.gov/>

Partners for Recovery, a web site launched by SAMHSA, facilitates communication and resource-sharing for organizations and communities that help individuals and families achieve and maintain recovery.

National Institute on Alcohol Abuse and Alcoholism (NIAAA)

<http://www.niaaa.nih.gov/Pages/default.aspx>

NIAAA is the primary federal agency conducting and supporting research, administering policy, and disseminating data and public announcements on alcohol abuse and alcoholism.

National Institute on Drug Abuse (NIDA)

<http://www.nida.nih.gov/>

NIDA is the primary federal agency conducting and supporting research, administering policy, and disseminating data and public announcements on drug dependence.

Recovery Month

<http://www.recoverymonth.gov/>

Recovery Month, sponsored every September by SAMSHA's Center for Substance Abuse Treatment and national planning partners, is an annual nationwide event highlighting the benefits of treatment and recovery.

Substance Abuse & Mental Health Services Administration (SAMSHA)

<http://www.samhsa.gov/grants/>

SAMSHA, an agency of the United States Department of Health and Human Services, works to focus attention, programs, and funding on improving the lives of people with or at risk for mental and substance abuse disorders. Its Grant home page provides information on new grants. SAMSHA also maintains a mailing list with updates on the latest news and information from the agency.

Second Chance Act

<http://www.ojp.usdoj.gov/BJA/grant/SecondChance.html>

The Second Chance Act, administered by the United States Department of Justice, provides grants focusing on serving and assisting individuals returning to society after being incarcerated.

White House Office of National Drug Control Policy (ONDCP)

<http://www.whitehouse.gov/ondcp>

ONDCP provides information on the National Media Campaign, the Drug-Free Communities Act and other resources.