

Recovery Community Organization Toolkit Resources

RESOURCES FOR NON-PROFITS

Alliance for Justice

<http://bolderadvocacy.org/>

The Alliance for Justice's Bolder Advocacy site offers information on federal regulations affecting nonprofits, as well as workshops, examples of documents and technical assistance.

Board Source

<http://www.boardsource.org/AboutUs.asp>

Board Source provides information on nonprofit boards and governance. Organizations can sign up to receive news and information by email.

The Foundation Center

<http://www.foundationcenter.org/>

The Foundation Center provides information about philanthropy around the world, and maintains a comprehensive database on U.S. and global grant makers and their grants.

The Grantsmanship Center

<http://www.tgci.com>

The Grantsmanship Center offers training and low-cost publications to non-profit organization,

GuideStar

<http://www.guidestar.org>

GuideStar provides a searchable database to educate donors, funders, researchers, educators, professional service providers, governing agencies, and the media about their work. Organizations can update their GuideStar report for free, including their mission, programs, leaders, goals, accomplishments, and needs.

Internal Revenue Service

<http://www.stayexempt.org/>

The IRS Office of Exempt Organizations has a website, primarily for small to mid-size exempt organizations, guiding users through the basics of setting up and running an exempt organization.

Mental Health America Centers for Technical Assistance Resource Library

<http://ncstac.org/>

Mental Health America's Centers for Technical Assistance maintains an online resource library with free downloadable publications, many of which are of interest to non-profit organizations and their leaders. These include: Guide to Funding and Financial Management, Guide to Proposal Writing, How to File for 501(c)3 Status, Working with Volunteers, and How to Work with the Media.

National Council of Nonprofit Associations (NCNA)

<http://www.councilofnonprofits.org/>

NCNA is an umbrella organization of state nonprofit councils that provide support, resources, and management services for nonprofit organizations.